what's the difference?

A hobby is an activity done regularly in someone's spare time for pleasure. Hobby involves an active pursuit of an interest. In other words, a hobby always involves an action.

Interest is a feeling of wanting to know or learn about something or someone. If one has a strong interest in some subject, he or she may turn it into a hobby. But an interest is not necessarily a hobby. A person may have many interests, but not all of them are hobbies.
